

NARBONNE GRADUATE IN AIR FORCE

Candace (Candy) Herndon, 18, a January graduate of Narbonne High, is now serving her six weeks of basic training at Lackland Air Force Base, San Antonio, Texas. Inquisitive as to the opportunities offered by the Air Force, Candace turned to TSGT. Donald Yeaman, Torrance Air Force Recruiter, who explained it all to Candace and her mother, Mrs. Jimmy Meeks. After a series of written tests, interviews, references and a physical, Candace was accepted as a WAF. She is pictured here at the swearing in ceremony with WAF Selection Officer MSGT. Shirley Leister, left, and Recruiter Don Yeaman.

Junior Citizens Club Stresses Patriotism

A Junior American Citizens Club has been organized by Mrs. Marmar's class of gifted children in the Tulita School, Redondo Beach, under the sponsorship of the El Redondo Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution. Mrs. Sydney Thompson, who is chairman of the Junior American Citizens Committee of the Chapter, paid a recent visit to the classroom and was shown exhibits of the work of the club of 25 members.

The Junior Citizens chose the name "Susan B. Anthony" for their group because one of their members, Anthony, claims direct descent from the famous woman advocate of suffrage for women.

The primary purpose of the club is to encourage children of all races and creeds to study the principles of good citizenship, with its privileges and responsibilities. In their studies of this country and its government, loyalty to the United States, and respect for the flag are stressed.

At the State Convention in Fresno on March 4-7, the El Redondo Chapter was awarded a Certificate of Merit "for outstanding achievement in sponsoring a new Junior American Citizens Club," one of four awarded in the state of California.
